

Booking Form 2017

Booking opens to the general public on 26th June 2017. Over 65s are entitled to a £2 discount on each concert ticket purchased (except for Season Tickets, on which there are no further discounts). Ticket prices in brackets apply to: U16s, students in full-time education, registered unwaged people and disabled people.

Concert	Number of tickets	Centre	Number of tickets	Side	Total Price
Wednesday 27 th September, 7.30 pm Trio Apaches		£20 (£10)		£15 (£8)
Thursday 28 th September, 1.00 pm James Campbell, Paul Marleyn, Martin Roscoe		£10 (£6)		£10 (£6)
Thursday 28 th September, 7.30 pm Martin Roscoe		£20 (£10)		£15 (£8)
Friday 29 th September, 1.00 pm James Campbell, Paul Marleyn, Martin Roscoe		£10 (£6)		£10 (£6)
Friday 29 th September, 7.30 pm Campbell, Marleyn, Nabarro, Roscoe		£20 (£10)		£15 (£8)
Saturday 30 th September, 1.00 pm Paul Marleyn		£10 (£6)		£10 (£6)
Saturday 30 th September, 7.30 pm Allegri String Quartet, James Campbell		£20 (£10)		£15 (£8)
Evening Saver – four concerts		£70		£50
Lunchtime Saver - three concerts		£24
Festival Supersaver – seven concerts		£80		£60

NB SAVER tickets of all types are only available through the TIC, not online

- By post. Send your completed booking form (please fill in your name and address on the form), along with a cheque payable to ERYC, and a stamped, self-addressed envelope
- In person. Beverley TIC is open Monday to Saturday from 9.30 to 5.00. You can pay by card, cash or cheque. Again, please fill in your name and address on the booking form
- At the church before each concert; the ticket desk opens half an hour before each concert begins.

You can also book by phone, using the number 01482 391672. Phone bookings incur an additional £1 charge to cover administration. Seats in the centre blocks are numbered, and the staff at the TIC will help you choose the best seats. Seats in the side aisles are unreserved, and some have a restricted view of the stage and performers – you can choose the best available for yourself.